Unit 2 Trinity

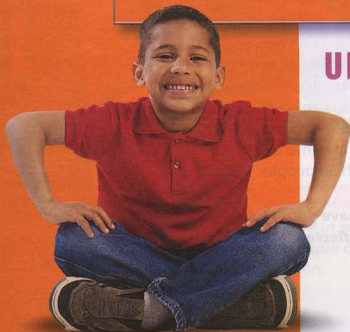

In this unit you will...

learn about the mystery of the Blessed Trinity. There is one God in three Persons who are united in love. Each of the Persons of the Trinity is distinct, and they work together in love. We worship the Trinity when we gather for liturgy and in personal prayer.

What do you think you will learn in this unit about responding to God?

Overview

The Holy Trinity

CATECHIST FORMATION

Faith Focus

- The Holy Trinity is three Persons in one God. (CCC 253)
- Jesus, God the Son, taught about God the Father and God the Spirit. (CCC 240, 243)

Catechism Connection

The Catechism calls the Trinity the central mystery of Christian faith and life because it is the mystery of God in himself. (CCC 234)

NDC Link

The Directory states that all who catechize must present the Christian message as Trinitarian in nature. Everything you do in catechesis must have Christ at the center and be grounded in belief in the mystery of the Holy Trinity. (See NDC, 25B.)

Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit."

Matthew 28:18–19

The Central Mystery of Faith

The most fundamental teaching of the Catholic faith is that of the Holy Trinity. The Church has repeatedly testified to this teaching in its earliest history, in its creeds, and in other statements of faith. The Hebrew people believed in the profound truth that there is only one God. Jesus' Resurrection and the coming of the Holy Spirit showed the faithful that in this one God there are three divine Persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Although the doctrine of the Trinity is a religious mystery, it is the mystery that helps us probe more deeply the nature of God. The Church holds this image of the communion of three Persons as a profound truth.

A Relational God

The images of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit provide some insight into the nature of God as a relational being. All three Persons of the Trinity play a part in creation, redemption and sanctification. The Trinity embodies the energy and power of love that draws all creation into his embrace. The love that exists among Father, Son, and Spirit cannot be contained; it can only overflow into a relationship with all people.

Reflect How have your loving relationships reflected the love of the Trinity?

TEACHING CHAPTER 4

The Trinity

Your first task will be to help children understand what a mystery is. Explain that a mystery is something that no one on earth can really understand. It is beyond human reasoning ability.

- Help children see the difference between a problem and a mystery. Even if there is no solution to a problem, there is still the possibility of solution. A mystery does not need to be solved, nor even totally understood. It needs to be experienced and believed.
- Suggest examples of things that people do not understand completely, such as why some people form friendships and others do not, or why some people risk their lives for others.
- When you teach about the Trinity, be sure to emphasize that there is only one God. Third graders are concrete thinkers and may begin thinking in terms of “three gods.”

THIRD GRADERS SAY

Help Me Grow

- I want to learn more about God. Help me explore the mysteries of faith.
- I have a growing sense of competence and independence. Encourage me to do some things on my own.
- I believe in myself when you believe in me.

SUSTAINING YOUR SPIRIT

Engagement with Others

Blessed assurance in yourself is important. It is also important to experience significant and constructive engagement with others. Doing so enables you to

- see firsthand the goodness of others.
- recognize that sometimes a task is best addressed by a team.
- replenish your level of empathy.
- see that you can still benefit from different styles and approaches.

Engagement with others sustains your spirit by pulling you past your own limitations and by restoring your faith in yourself and others.

The Holy Trinity

Let Us Pray

Leader: Lord God, send forth the Holy Spirit to set our hearts on fire!

"The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the holy Spirit be with all of you."

2 Corinthians 13:13

All: Lord God, send forth the Holy Spirit to set our hearts on fire! Amen.

Activity Let's Begin

Mysteries of Nature Some things in this world just can't be explained. Only God understands the mysteries of his creation.

Why did God make the sky blue and the grass green?

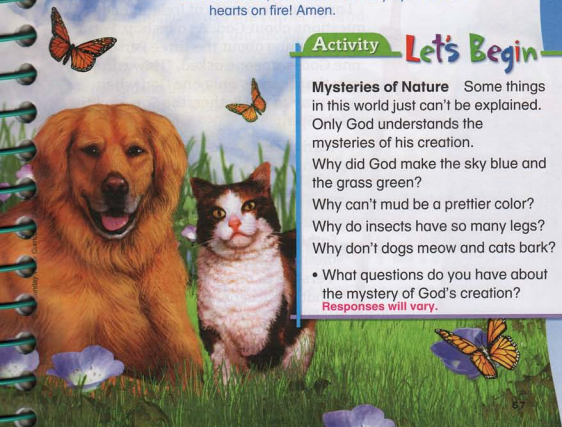

Why can't mud be a prettier color?

Why do insects have so many legs?

Why don't dogs meow and cats bark?

- What questions do you have about the mystery of God's creation?

Responses will vary.

Objective: To identify the concept of mystery

Let Us Pray

Have children move to your classroom prayer space. In the space, have a crucifix and a Bible open to the New Testament verse. Tell children that the scripture verse is a blessing used by Paul and that it names the Persons of the Blessed Trinity. Then have children pray the scripture verse after you.

Activity

- Read aloud Mysteries of Nature.
- Have children think of different mysteries of nature. Possible responses: Why do birds fly and fish swim? Why don't people have wings?
- Write the responses on the board or on chart paper.

SCRIPTURE BACKGROUND

Blessing This passage, 2 Corinthians 13:13, falls at the end of the Second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians and is used as a greeting at the beginning of the Mass and at other liturgies.

- The verse is a benediction, or a blessing, from Paul to his readers and listeners.
- Note the mention of the three Persons in God.

WELCOME

OPTIONAL ACTIVITY

Observe Nature's Mysteries If weather permits, take children for a short walk on your parish grounds.

- Point out to children various objects that illustrate the mysteries of nature.
- After returning to your meeting room, have children discuss the things that they observed.

Multiple Intelligence: Visual/Spatial

Objective: To discuss the mystery of three Persons in one God

Focus

What did Saint Patrick teach about the Holy Trinity? List children's responses on the board or on chart paper.

Learning About Mystery

Tell children to think about things that they do not understand. Explain that it is normal to feel anxious about not knowing.

Three in One

Ask two volunteers to each read a paragraph of Three in One.

- Arrange children in small groups.
- Ask children to discuss what it means to accept an idea on faith.

Possible response: to believe without fully understanding

- Finally, discuss the question on the bottom of the page.

Learning About Mystery

Focus What did Saint Patrick teach about the Holy Trinity?

Have you ever learned something that was hard to understand? The story of Saint Patrick tells how the people of Ireland learned about something hard to understand.

A STORY

Three in One

Long ago the people of Ireland had questions about God. As a bishop, Patrick was teaching about the three Persons in one God, someone asked, "How can you say that there is only one God when you pray to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit?"

Patrick explained the Holy Trinity by plucking a shamrock from the ground. He held it up for the people to see. "The shamrock I am holding is one plant, but it has three leaves. The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are not three gods. They are three Persons in one God. This is a mystery that we accept on faith."

- What helped the people better understand the mystery of the Holy Trinity? Bishop Patrick used the shamrock.

Faith Fact

Bishop Patrick lived about 400 years after the birth of Jesus.

REACHING ALL LEARNERS

Saint Patrick When he was sixteen, Patrick was sold into slavery and taken to Ireland. After escaping slavery, Patrick began studies to become a priest.

- After his ordination, he returned to Ireland.
- Patrick was made a bishop in 431. He died c. 461 and later became the patron saint of Ireland. His feast day is March 17.

One God

Patrick helped the people understand that there is only one God.

You can also learn from Jesus, who told his followers about the Father and the Holy Spirit.

SCRIPTURE

John 14:6-7, 16-17

The Father and the Spirit

One day Jesus was talking with his followers about God. Jesus told them, “No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father.”

Jesus promised to ask the Father to send the Holy Spirit to teach the people.

From John 14:6-7, 16-17

What did Jesus say about the Father and the Spirit? If you know Jesus, you can know the Father. The Holy Spirit will teach you.

Activity

Share Your Faith

Think: Think about the Holy Trinity and the shamrock.

Share: Talk to your group about how the shamrock is like the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Act: Draw a shamrock and label one leaf “Father,” one leaf “Son,” and one leaf “Holy Spirit.”

69

Words of Faith

The Holy Trinity is the name for the three Persons in one God.

One God

Summarize the content of the text.

- Refer to the images of the shamrock on the page. Remind children that Patrick used the shamrock to help people understand God better.

The Father and the Holy Spirit

Invite one child to practice and then read aloud Jesus’ part in the text as you proclaim the Scripture.

- Discuss the question that follows the Scripture.

Activity

- Organize children in small groups. Give them a few minutes to draw and label their shamrocks.
- Have children take turns playing the part of Saint Patrick, using their drawings to teach about the Trinity.

Quick Review

The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are the Holy Trinity—three Persons in one God. Jesus and Saint Patrick taught people about the Blessed Trinity.

OPTIONAL ACTIVITY

Activity Master 4: Trinity Puzzle Distribute copies of the activity found on catechist page 74A.

- The puzzle’s solution will reveal a message.
- As an alternative, you may wish to send this activity home with children.

▲ Activity Master 4

SCRIPTURE BACKGROUND

The Trinity In this passage from the Gospel according to John, the actions of each Person of the Trinity are described.

- As Jesus points out, only he can lead people into God the Father’s presence. In addition, the Holy Spirit will be sent to followers of Jesus when Jesus returns to the Father.
- Other scripture passages that refer to the Persons of the Trinity include Matthew 28:19, Luke 1:15, and Acts 5:32.

2 Explore

Objective: To explain relationships within the Trinity

Focus

What is the work of the Trinity? List children's responses on the board or on chart paper

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

Ask a proficient reader to read the text aloud. Tell children to listen for the definition of the word mystery.

- Invite children to name groups to which they belong. Possible responses: families, scouts, sports teams Point out the bonds of love and commitment that make such groups successful.
- Use the photographs to discuss how people show the love of the Trinity in everyday life.
- Discuss the question. Accept all reasonable responses.

Explore

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

Focus What is the work of the Trinity?

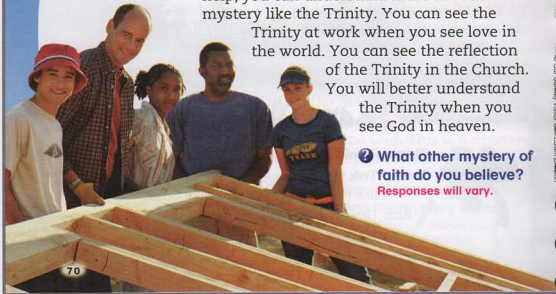

Jesus called God "Father," and he taught his followers to call God "Father," too. By his actions Jesus showed that he is God the Son, who became human to save all people. Jesus asked his Father to send the Holy Spirit, who is God's love and grace, to be present with you.

The most important thing about the Holy Trinity is that it is a loving communion of Persons joined as one in love. The Holy Trinity is a mystery, a truth of faith that Catholics believe even though they cannot understand it completely. A mystery is a truth that only God can fully understand.

Through God's revelation and with his help, you can understand more about a mystery like the Trinity. You can see the Trinity at work when you see love in the world. You can see the reflection of the Trinity in the Church. You will better understand the Trinity when you see God in heaven.

- What other mystery of faith do you believe? Responses will vary.

QUICK TIP

Pretzels It is said that long ago an Italian monk twisted extra bread dough into a loose knot shape.

- The three spaces came to symbolize the Trinity, and the dough strips resemble praying arms.
- The first pretzels were given to children as a reward for knowing their prayers.
- After checking for food allergies, distribute pretzels of the type shown.

Honoring the Trinity

The Church remembers and honors the three Persons in one God in such prayers as the Sign of the Cross and the Glory to the Father. The Church has developed summaries of faith called creeds. One of the oldest creeds is the Apostles' Creed. It is a summary of faith in the Holy Trinity. Here is how the three parts begin.

"I believe in God, the Father . . .
and in Jesus Christ . . .
I believe in the Holy Spirit . . ."

Working Together

God the Father created you. The Son, Jesus, saved you and is your brother. The Holy Spirit is with you now, making you holy and helping you bring God's love and peace to the world. All three Persons of the Trinity work together as one God.

When can the Holy Spirit help and guide you?

Responses will vary.

Activity

Connect Your Faith

Write a Prayer Finish each prayer in your own words.

God our Father, _____

Jesus, Son of God, _____

Holy Spirit, help us _____

Words of Faith

Creeds are statements of the basic beliefs about God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, and about other teachings of the Church.

Honoring the Trinity

Ask children to read the text silently to learn about creeds.

- Have children read together the phrases that begin the three main parts of the Apostles' Creed.

Working Together

Read the text aloud.

- Invite children to describe the actions of the Trinity. Possible response: creating, saving, guiding
- Discuss the question.

Activity

- Organize children in groups of three to complete the activity.
- Invite each group to read its prayer aloud.

Quick Review

The Trinity is a mystery of faith. The Trinity helps you bring God's love and peace to the world.

CATECHIST BACKGROUND

Creeds Creed comes from the Latin credo, meaning "I believe." Two well-known creeds are the Apostles' Creed and the Nicene Creed.

- The Nicene Creed was adopted at an ecumenical council in the city of Nicaea in the fourth century.
- The language in both Creeds was revised when we began to implement the English translation of the Third Edition of the Roman Missal in November 2011.

OPTIONAL ACTIVITY

Church Tour Many parish churches display symbols of the Trinity.

- Take children on a tour of the church to look for symbols of the Trinity.
- If a tour is not possible, describe any symbols in the church.

Multiple Intelligence: Bodily/Kinesthetic

Objective: To participate in a prayer service based on a creed

LITURGY LINK

We Do Invite children to stand during this prayer service.

- Tell them that people usually stand when making a very important statement, such as a speech or a serious promise (a wedding vow, for instance).
- The statement "I do" is a definition of faith.

LECTIONARY LINK

Remind children to discuss the Family Faith page at home. Encourage children to read the passage from Acts.

Activity

Explain the activity. Help children think of ways to show the love of the Holy Trinity.

People of Faith

Tell children about Saint John of Matha.

- Saint John of Matha worked to honor God by helping others. He visited people in hospitals and comforted them. He was an excellent student who used his abilities to help others.
- After introducing the People of Faith feature, remind children to cut it out and add it to their People of Faith albums. Encourage children to pray the prayer at home with their families.

UNIT 2: CHAPTER 4

Family Faith

Catholics Believe

- The Holy Trinity is three Persons in one God.
- Jesus, God the Son, taught about God the Father and God the Holy Spirit.

SCRIPTURE

Acts 2:1-4 is about the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Talk about how the Holy Spirit helped the Apostles.

Activity

Live Your Faith

Show Love Talk about your family's life together. List ways that you show the love of the Holy Trinity to one another. Place a paper shamrock on the refrigerator or wall in your kitchen. Each time someone in your family shows love, place a sticker on the shamrock. When the shamrock is filled, go out for a family treat together.

People of Faith

John was born in France, and he studied in Paris. He was ordained a priest and started the Order of the Most Holy Trinity, known as the Trinitarians. The order worked to free Christian prisoners and slaves. The Trinitarians set up hospitals and now run schools. Saint John's feast day is December 17.

Family Prayer

Saint John, pray for us that we may honor the Trinity by working to serve others. Amen.
