God Strengthens Us to Be Holy

Goals

The children will learn about their obligation as Christians to live like Jesus, loving God and others. They will be encouraged to appreciate the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation, the Eucharist, and the Ten Commandments.

5 We Are Called to Follow lesus

Jesus teaches us how to live. He shows love and concern for others by healing them, forgiving them, and teaching them. He prays to his Father and teaches us the Lord's Prayer. In this chapter the children are encouraged to follow the path of Jesus and to make prayer and good works part of their daily lives.

6 Jesus Invites Us to Receive God's Mercy

We are all sinners and in need of God's mercy. In this chapter the children are helped to recognize both their need for mercy and God's readiness to grant it if they are sorry for their sins. They learn about conscience and the importance of forming it according to Jesus' teachings so that their consciences may help direct and evaluate their choices. They study the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation as a means of overcoming weaknesses and learning to love God more.

7 We Worship God

As creatures of God, we acknowledge our creator through worship. In this chapter the children learn that they can worship God through loving adoration and service. They learn that Jesus offered perfect worship to the Father, and they unite themselves with him. They also learn from the example of the saints how they can use their unique gifts for the worship of God.

8 God Gave Us Laws for Living

In the Old Testament God gave his people the Ten Commandments as a pattern for living. The children learn that these laws are a sign of God's love. They are encouraged to recognize the commandments as a guide to a rich, happy life on earth and eternal joy in heaven. The children are motivated to love these laws of love as the Israelites did.

9 We Honor Mary

In Mary we find the model for all we are meant to be. Her assent to God's will in the Annunciation is characteristic of the holiness to which we are called. The children learn the Angelus and review the key concepts of this unit.

We Are Called to Follow Jesus

Faith Focus

Jesus shows us how to love God and others.

Reflecting on the Faith Experience

Take a few moments to reflect prayerfully before preparing the lesson.

Listening

I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly.

Iohn 10:10

Reflecting

The love of God the Father becomes visible in Iesus. The Gospels show Jesus meeting each person's needs, responding to each one's unique dignity, and calling each to live more fully in his love. God's love for us asks for nothing less than a total response: We are to share that love with each person we encounter in our daily lives. Christ asked his Father "that the love with which you loved me may be in them and I in them." (John 17:26)

Iesus tells us that we are to share God's goodness with all. We are to love one another with the power we receive from him:

His divine power has bestowed on us everything that makes for life and devotion, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and power. Through these, he has bestowed on us the precious and very great promises, so that through them you may come to share in the divine nature, after escaping from the corruption that is in the world because of evil desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, virtue with knowledge, knowledge with self-control, self-control with endurance. endurance with devotion, devotion with mutual affection, mutual affection with love.

2 Peter 1:3-7

At each Eucharist we express our willingness to die with Christ so that others might live. In the opening prayer of liturgies and at pastoral or spiritual meetings, the Church prays for Christlike love:

Pour out on us, O Lord, we pray,

a spirit of truth, understanding and peace,

that we may know with all our hearts

what is pleasing to you and, with one accord. pursue what we have come to know.

Through our Lord Iesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Collect Prayer Mass for a Spiritual or Pastoral Gathering

When discouraged by evil, do I recall that life in Christ empowers me to meet evil and suffering with kindness and concern?

Responding

Holy Spirit, make the children more and more like Iesus.

Scripture for Further Reflection

Matthew 7:12 Do to others what you would have them do to vou.

James 2:14-17 Our faith in God must be expressed by works of love that meet the needs of others. Faith without good works is dead.

General Directory for Catechesis #85. Jesus turned to his Father with adoration, praise, thanksgiving, filial confidence, supplication, and awe for his glory, and all these sentiments are reflected in the Lord's Prayer.

Decree on the Apostolate of Lay People #31c (Vatican II). Works of charity and mercy are a striking testimony to the Christian life; the faithful, from childhood on, must be taught to be compassionate and generous to those in need.

Instruction on Prayers for Healing, Introduction. (Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith). In the Church, we understand sickness to be a means of union with Christ and of spiritual purification. For those who find themselves in the presence of a sick person, it is an occasion for the exercise of charity.

For a list of all the music suggested in this program, see page T376.

Enriching the Faith Experience

Use the activities at the end of the chapter to enrich a lesson or to replace an activity with one that better meets the needs of your class.

Before You Begin

- Even though his daughter was dead, Jairus trusted in Jesus' power. Jesus responded by restoring the girl's life. God does not always work miracles that restore physical health, but he truly heals every faithful person who cries out to him in need.
- 2. When Jesus forgave the sins of a paralyzed man, Jewish leaders challenged him by protesting, "Who but God alone can forgive sins?" (Mark 27) Jesus gave them a visible sign of his divine power by curing the man's body so that the man was able to get up, pick up his mat, and walk away.
- 3. There is an interesting difference between the Lord's Prayer in Matthew's Gospel and the one in Luke's Gospel. The text in Matthew reads, "Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors." The text in Luke reads "Forgive us our sins for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us." The Matthean version seems to imply that we ask for the same degree of forgiveness that we extend to others. The Lucan text seems to say that we ask for forgiveness because we have earned the right to do so by forgiving others. In either case, it is clear that Jesus wants us to ask for God's forgiveness, and he also wants us to be forgiving people. Forgiving and forgiven-the two cannot be separated. It is by forgiving others that we open ourselves up to God's forgiveness. Both Matthew and Luke would agree on that.

- 4. Christ's miracles draw attention to the fact that in him the Kingdom of God was truly at hand. Beyond that, the significance of the miracles lies in their individual messages. As he cures Bartimaeus, who is blind, lesus tells him that his faith has saved him. (Mark 10:52) Hearing this story, the children can sense the importance of their own faith and, upon further reflection, realize that Iesus calls them to be especially kind to anyone in need.
- Explain to the children that the Lord's Prayer is also commonly referred to as the Our Father.

Dear Parents and Family,

"nit Two of Christ Our Life presents children with the ultimate road map to good living: the teachings of Jesus

At the beginning of this unit, the children are reminded of their At the origining of this unit, the children are reminded of their responsibility as Christians to live as Jesus did, loving God and others. They are encouraged to follow the path Jesus left for us, making prayer and good works part of their daily lives. The children's study of prayer provides a great opportunity for you to make prayer a bigger part of your family life

Of course, everyone gets a little lost now and then. In Unit Two, the children will pause and reflect on their need for mercy, as well as on God's readiness to grant it if they are truly sorry for their sins. The children will deepen their understanding of conscience and how to form it in accord with Jesus' teaching. Acknowledging the times when they are lost will foster a greater appreciation for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. You can share your own appreciation of this opportunity for forgiveness by participating in the sacrament in your parish.

Finally in Unit Two, the children will learn the importance of worshiping God. In fact, it's one of the Ten Commandments, a clear set of guide to living right, a gift demonstrating God's love for us and bring us close to him.

At the end of each chapter in this unit, the children will review of the chapter along with either the Building Fan the Family Feature section. These features give you a q your child learned and offer practical ways to re so that the whole family may benefit.

Sharing_

- Ask a child to read the paragraph of Jesus Teaches Us How to Live on page 29.
 - This year you will be learning more about what it means to follow Jesus.
 - Read the quotation from John's Gospel silently. Now let's read it together. [Read it.]
 - Just as Jesus came to give us life, we too must be life giving.
 - Today's story tells of a father who felt very sad because his daughter had died. You will find out a little later just what Jesus did.
- 2. Discuss with the children ways in which they can work with Jesus to help people in today's world. * Solidarity
 - · We are going to read a story today about a very special lifegiving thing Jesus did. Because he was the Son of God, Jesus did many things for the people he met. We are not able to do all that Jesus did, but we can help people in our world by praying for them and asking Jesus to help them. When do people need our prayers? (when they are sad and have troubles; when they find it hard to be good; when they need food, clothing, or a home) Do you know any people who need our prayers? What could we ask lesus to do for them?
 - We can make sacrifices for people. That means we can give our own things or our time, out of love for God, to those in need. Our sacrifices can even help people who live far away. How can we help? (Money, clothes, and food help missions and other groups who work with people in need.)
 - The Poor and Vulnerable
 - What kind words can we say to help people feel happy? (hello; thank you; please; I'm sorry; you did well; may I help you?)

We Are Called to Follow Jesus

Jesus Teaches Us How to Live

During his lifetime in Palestine, Jesus showed us how to be the best persons we can be. By his words and actions he taught us how to live holy and happy lives. Baptized Christians try to live like Jesus and follow his teachings. We are called to bring his life and love into the world. Jesus said,

"I came that you might have life—and have it to the full."

adapted from John 10:10

♦ What kind deeds can you do for others? (run errands, carry things, pur things away at home, ask another child to play, help someone who got hurr, give a card or gift to a sick person) You can see that there are many things we can do. The important thing is to do them. There are some people who spend their lives helping others, as Jesus did. Do you know some of them? (doctors, nurses, priests, sisters, brothers, deacons, lay missionaries, teachers, research scientiss.

volunteers)

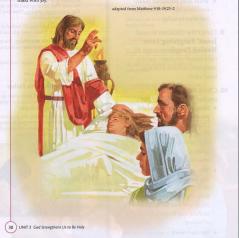

- Tell the children that there are three things everyone can do for others: pray, sacrifice, and help.
 List these words on the board.
- 4. Ask the children how they can pray, sacrifice, or help in a current news situation or at school. List their suggestions on the board under the proper headings.

- 5. Introduce the children to the people in the illustration on page 30. (Jesus, Jairus [IIE ruhs], Jairus's wife and daughter)
- 6. Direct the children to read the story of Jairus called Jesus Showed Love and Concern.
 - + Jairus knew that Jesus would help him. Even though his little girl was dead, Jairus still went to Jesus. How did Jesus help Jairus? (He brought the little girl back to life.)
 - + Responding to the needs of others brings them and us joy. Recall all the ways we talked about earlier that we can work with Jesus to help people in today's world.
- 7. Discuss prayer for others in trouble. * Solidarity
 - + We give our first love and concern to our own families. However, as Christians we must be concerned about everyone. We are all brothers and sisters.
 - + What should we do when we hear about disasters and tragedies? (pray for the people concerned: help in some way. if possible)
 - + Do you remember a time when you prayed or helped people suffering from a disaster even though you did not know them personally?

Jesus Showed Love and Concern

A man named Jairus rushed through the crowd to reach Jesus. He knelt before Jesus and said, "My daughter has just died. But come, lay your hand on her, and she will live."

Jesus went with Jairus to his house. He took the little girl by the hand, and she got up. Jesus gave life back to her. Jairus and the girl's mother were filled with joy.

8. Introduce the story of the paralyzed man.

- + Today you will read another story that teaches us a way to give life. It is about a man who is paralyzed. [Print paralyzed on the board.]
- + What does paralyzed mean? (not being able to move, either partially or totally)
- 9. Direct the children to read Jesus' Forgiving Love Healed People on page 31. Have several volunteers read the paragraphs and one child read lesus' words.

10. Check the children's understanding of the story.

- + How do you know that the paralyzed man had good friends? (They brought him to lesus by letting the man down through the roof.) When they brought him to Jesus, what was the first thing Jesus did? (forgave the man's sins)
- · Why did Jesus forgive the man's sins before he healed him? (to show that God forgives sins, to show that being forgiven is more important than being able to walk, to show that forgiveness is a kind of healing)
- · We can't work a miracle as Jesus did, but we can forgive people who hurt us or make us angry.

11. Option BLM 8 Use the BLM 8 Puppet Pattern to create puppets.

- Have the children create characters with their puppets and use them to act out situations in which angry feelings are dealt with in a Christian way. Say:
- + I will start several plays, and you may finish each one. Think about the feelings each puppet has. Think of ways the puppets can tell how they feel and how they can bring the peace of forgiveness to each other. Raise your hand when you are ready to end the play. We can have several endings for each play.

Jesus' Forgiving Love Healed People

One day Jesus was teaching in a house. Many people gathered to hear him speak. They crowded into the house and around the door.

In the crowd was a paralyzed man who wanted to see Jesus. Because the man couldn't get into the house, his friends carried him to the roof. They lifted up part of the roof until they had a large opening. Then they lowered the sick man on his mat

Jesus stopped teaching. He looked at the sick man and said, "Child, your sins are forgiven." Then he cured the man's body. The man got up, picked up his mat, and walked out in front of everyone

Jesus Prayed to His Father

The apostles watched lesus when he was at prayer. They could see that he knew how to speak to God our Father. Afterward they came to him and said, "Lord, teach us to pray,"

Then Jesus taught them the prayer we call the Lord's Prayer or the Our Father. We should try to pray it every day. In this prayer we praise God and ask for all our needs. We ask to be forgiven as we forgive others. We also ask to be saved from evil.

- boys talking and felt hurt and very angry. Nathan got off the bus, and Cesar watched Luis going through his baseball cards. He asked Luis if he could see them.
- 2. Grace got angry because Chloe embarrassed her. Chloe told the other girls that she didn't like the new dress Grace wore to school, Now Chloe wants Grace to go skating with her. Grace doesn't want to be embarrassed again.
- 3. Angelo didn't follow Tyler's instructions and broke Tyler's kite when he used it. Tyler felt angry, but Angelo said he was very sorry and would be much more careful in the future. Now he wants to try out Tyler's new model airplane.
- 4. Elena feels bad because she can't draw as well as her brother Salvador can. Salvador boasts about the contests he's won, and he teases Elena about her drawings. One day Elena tears up one of Salvador's pictures. Now both children feel angry.

12. Read the paragraphs in Jesus Prayed to His Father on page 31.

- . Then have the children look at the picture.
- + Who are the men standing in the background? (apostles)
- + What are they doing? (watching Jesus pray)
- + Jesus looked so happy and peaceful. He was speaking to his heavenly Father, and nothing else seemed to matter.

- + What did the apostles want to do when they saw Jesus praying? (They wanted to pray like Jesus.) What did they say to lesus? ("Lord. teach us to pray.")
- + Jesus wanted his apostles to know his Father and speak to him freely and easily. What prayer did Jesus teach them? (the Lord's Prayer)
- 13. Direct the children to work the Lord's Prayer activity on page 32, and check their answers.
- 14. Discuss phrases of the Lord's Prayer on page 32.
 - + By what name does Jesus call God? (Our Father)
 - + Why is God our Father? (God takes care of us. We are God's children. God has given us everything we have.)
 - + In the Lord's Prayer, what do we say about where God is? (who art in heaven)
 - + What does "hallowed be thy name" mean? (We want God's name to be kept holy.)
 - How do we show reverence for God's name? (by never speaking it when we are angry, by using it in prayer, by speaking of God with love)
 - + What is the next part of the prayer? ("Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.") We pray that all people will belong to God's kingdom. We pray that God will rule in the kingdom of our hearts. We want all people on earth to do God's will, just as all those in heaven do it.
 - + What is the next part of the Lord's Prayer? ("Give us this day our daily bread.") What are we asking from God? (our daily bread) Bread is a symbol of all that we need in our lives. We are asking for food, clothing, and shelter. We also are asking for the Bread we need in order to grow in God's life-Holy Communion.

- + What is the next phrase? ("Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.") What are trespasses? (sins) Trespass also can mean any hurtful or mean action. What must we do if we want God to forgive us? (forgive those who trespass against us)
- What else do we ask of God? ("Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.") God allows us to be tempted but gives us strength not to give in. We ask God to keep us from evil and to help us be holy.

15. Have the children read People Who Act Like Jesus and complete page 33. Explain to them that the people in the examples cared about others, but they showed their concern in different ways, depending on their situations.

- 16. Option Ask the children to unscramble the word PLHE on the board.
 - When you unscramble the word, you will find out what you should do whenever you see anyone in need. (HELP)
 - Then ask them to think of ways to help that begin with each letter in the word help. (Examples: Hold the door open. Empty the wastebasket. Listen. Pray) % Solidarity

17. Lead the students in praying A Moment with Iesus.

- Invite the children to find a comfortable position for prayer, to breathe deeply several times, and then close their eyes. Read A Moment with Jesus slowly and reverently, giving the children time to speak with Jesus.
- At the end of the reflection, invite the children to talk to Jesus for a few moments about anything that is on their minds.
- Tell the children to open their eyes and turn their attention back to the room.

Acting

- Lead the children through the Add a Happy Ending activity on page 34.

We Remember

What does Jesus say about forgiving others? Jesus says,

"If you forgive others . . . , your heavenly Father will forgive you."

We Respond I will forgive those who hurt me.

Building Family Faith

CHAPTER SUMMARY The Gospel shows Jesus curing sick people, forgiving sins, and teaching all how to live in his love. As Jesus' followers, we share his concern for others and forgive those who have hurt us. REFLECT

Then Jesus returned to Capernaum after some days, it became known that he was at home.... They came bringing to him a paralytic carried by

- 3. Divide the class into small groups. Assign a story from page 34 to each group. Have the children select a leader, plan a playlet, choose parts, and practice. Then let each group perform for the others.
- 4. Provide a daily "peace time" in class. Gather the children into a circle, recall one way Jesus showed special care for someone in need, and invite the children to share some of the kind things they have seen others doing for people in need. Pray together the Lord's Prayer or another appropriate prayer. * Solidarity
