

Room for the Savior

A Coloring Book with Puzzles and Drawing Fun

A very long, long time ago, in tiny Bethlehem,
Ezekiel and Hannah owned a very tiny inn.

When travellers came into that town, they needed somewhere safe
Where they could stop and spend the night. This was the perfect place.

The king of all the land sent out a message far and wide:
"I want to count each person living in the countryside."
Each person went to his hometown so that he could be counted.
So little towns like Bethlehem were getting very crowded.

