Dear Parents and Teachers:

Saints and Me! is a series of children's books about saints, with six books in each set. The first set, Saints of North America, honors holy men and women who blessed and served the land we call home. The second set, Saints of Christmas, includes heavenly heroes who inspire us through Advent and Christmas and teach us to love the Infant Jesus.

Saints for Families introduces the virtuous lives of seven saints from different times and places who modeled God's love and charity within and for families. Saint Thérèse of Lisieux felt the love of her family and carried it into her religious community (which included her sisters). Saint Anthony of Padua is the patron of infants and children. Saint John Bosco cared for young, homeless boys, raising them like sons. Saint Thomas More, a father of five, imitated Christ's sacrificial love and devotion to the truth until death. Saints Joachim and Anne became the grandparents of Jesus, raising Mary as a sinless disciple. And Saint Gerard Majella, the patron of pregnant mothers, blessed families with food, knowledge, penances, and healing miracles.

Which saint stood up against a king? Who became a tailor and priest? Which saint is "the little flower?" Who was known for his excellent preaching? Which saints lived before Jesus? Which saint climbed trees, did flips, and turned cartwheels? Find out in the Saints for Families set—part of the Saints and Me! series—and help your child connect to the lives of the saints.

Introduce your children or students to the Saints and Me! series as they:

- READ about the lives of the saints and are inspired by their stories.
- PRAY to the saints for their intercession.
- CELEBRATE the saints and relate to their lives.

Long ago in Lisbon, Portugal, a boy named Ferdinand was born. His parents loved him very much. They taught him how to pray and help people. Ferdinand went to school and had lots of friends.

Ferdinand wanted to be a priest. He loved to study, pray, and read the Bible. The Bible was his favorite book. When he was fifteen, he joined the Augustinian order.

Several years later, Ferdinand met some Franciscan friars. Their lives were very simple. They told him how they loved and served God. “We preach about God. Our missionaries go to different countries,” they said.

“I think God is calling me to be a missionary,” Ferdinand told the friars. He left the Augustinian order and joined the Franciscans. His new name was Anthony, and he began wearing a brown habit. Soon, he and another friar set sail for Morocco, in Africa.
