Dear Parents and Teachers:

Saints and Me! is a series of children's books about saints, with six books in each set. The first set, Saints of North America, honors holy men and women who blessed and served the land we call home. The second set, Saints of Christmas, includes heavenly heroes who inspire us through Advent and Christmas and teach us to love the Infant Jesus.

Saints for Families introduces the virtuous lives of seven saints from different times and places who modeled God's love and charity within and for families. Saint Thérèse of Lisieux felt the love of her family and carried it into her religious community (which included her sisters). Saint Anthony of Padua is the patron of infants and children. Saint John Bosco cared for young, homeless boys, raising them like sons. Saint Thomas More, a father of five, imitated Christ's sacrificial love and devotion to the truth until death. Saints Joachim and Anne became the grandparents of Jesus, raising Mary as a sinless disciple. And Saint Gerard Majella, the patron of pregnant mothers, blessed families with food, knowledge, penances, and healing miracles.

Which saint stood up against a king? Who became a tailor and priest? Which saint is "the little flower?" Who was known for his excellent preaching? Which saints lived before Jesus? Which saint climbed trees, did flips, and turned cartwheels? Find out in the Saints for Families set—part of the Saints and Me! series—and help your child connect to the lives of the saints.

Introduce your children or students to the Saints and Me! series as they:

—READ about the lives of the saints and are inspired by their stories.

—PRAY to the saints for their intercession.

—CELEBRATE the saints and relate to their lives.

Thomas More was born in London, England. He liked to study and learn new things. Thomas was a good student and had many friends. Children enjoyed playing with Thomas because he was funny and kind.

For a time, he stayed at the home of the archbishop of Canterbury. It was an exciting place. He met many important people there. Thomas learned how to help people and listen to them. "You are a fine young man," the archbishop told Thomas.

Thomas returned to school and studied very hard. "What should I be when I grow up?" he asked himself. He loved God very much. He thought about being a monk or maybe a priest. Thomas prayed and asked God to help him.

After much thought and prayer, he decided to become a lawyer like his father. He married a woman named Jane. They had four beautiful children. Thomas and Jane loved their children very much. "Children are gifts from God," said Thomas.
