Dear Parents and Teachers:

Saints and Me! is a series of children's books about saints, with six books in each set. The first set, Saints of North America, honors holy men and women who blessed and served the land we call home. The second set, Saints of Christmas, includes heavenly heroes who inspire us through Advent and Christmas and teach us to love the Infant Jesus. The third set, Saints for Families, introduces saints who modeled God's love within and for the domestic Church.

Saints for Communities explores six individuals from different times and places who served Jesus through their various roles and professions. Saint John Baptist de la Salle taught children and founded a familiar educational system. Saint Joan of Arc helped to bring peace to the country of France. The Apostle Matthew was a tax collector before deciding to follow Jesus. The Apostle Thomas preached and built churches. Saint Cecilia sang hymns to Jesus in her heart. And Michael the Archangel is well-known for his protection.

Which saint doubted Jesus' resurrection? Which one fought a heavenly battle? Which saint heard heavenly voices? Who sold everything he owned? Which saint was first named Levi? Which saint was married against her will? Find out in the Saints for Communities set—part of the Saints and Me! series—and help your child connect to the lives of the saints.

Introduce your children or students to the Saints and Me! series as they:

- READ about the lives of the saints and are inspired by their stories.
- PRAY to the saints for their intercession.
- CELEBRATE the saints and relate them to their lives.

Joan of Arc was a brave and holy girl. She lived in France at a time when there were kings, castles, soldiers, and wars. French soldiers fought English soldiers. Joan wanted peace, not war. God made her a hero and a saint.

Joan lived in the small town of Domrémy. Everyone knew her because she was so nice. Joan liked to go to church and pray. She took care of the animals on her family's farm and spent time in her father's garden. Whenever she could, Joan helped her neighbors and did kind deeds.

One summer day, as Joan walked in the garden, she heard someone call her name. She looked around but did not see anyone. A voice said, “You must help France and the king. God wants you to send the English army away!” Joan tried not to listen to the voices.

“I’m too young. I do not know how to fight,” Joan thought to herself. But she thought about what the voices said and prayed. She knew God was speaking to her.

Finally Joan went to see the French commander of the army. "I am here to help France win the war," she said. The commander laughed at her! "Go home. Do not bother me," he said loudly. But Joan knew what to do. She had to see the future king of France. His name was Charles.

Joan was a small-town girl when God sent her messages to lead the French army to safety under a new king. Many doubted her calling, believing it to be lies or witchcraft. But Joan knew what God wanted her to do and eventually died for her faith. Read Joan's story. Can you bravely defend truth and peace like this saint?
