

Even As We

By Mary Ann Grauvogel

What is this that the Lord has done?
What man could imagine such love?
Our God has done the unspeakable,
He has made Himself as we.

The King who reigns in glory and splendor
Is now born in lowliness
Even as we.
You who reside in power and honor
Have made yourself helpless
Even as we.

What is this that the Lord has done?
What man could imagine such love?
Our God has done the unspeakable,
He has made Himself as we.

The Word who conceived and named all creation
Must now acquire knowledge
Even as we.
You who are the strength of your people
Now travel in weakness
Even as we.

What is this that the Lord has done?
What man could imagine such love?
Our God has done the unspeakable,
He has made Himself as we.

Jesus you come with nothing but humility
A giving heart
And desire to save.
We stand in awe at the depth of your love
In wonder and homage
Our hearts bend low.

What is this that the Lord has done?
What man could imagine such love?
Our God has done the unspeakable,
He has made Himself as we.
